The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Dear Allen:

I was in Washington last week on our famous case and had a short and pleasant chat with Jim Angleton.

As you know, since I left Washington I have been acting as a Special Assistant to Bill Rogers in connection with the appeal. In charting our course there are some aspects that I would like to discuss with you very much. I expect to be in Washington next Wednesday and Thursday and would appreciate your letting me know if you will be available.

Kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,
